	The emergency bed space shall be available in the event it is needed and at the COR's direction. Emergency situations will be determined by ICE and the COR will advise if there is an emergency requiring need for the additional beds. The rate for the emergency beds and additional costs authorized with the emergency beds is noted below and effective immediately upon signature. No additional staffing or overtime is required when utilizing the additional beds. The emergency beds are authorized for use for a maximum of 120 days under this contract/agreement effective the day it is signed. If utilization beyond a total of 120 days is required, an additional modification will be processed to add additional days for coverage. An exemption is required for the emergency beds for PBNDs 4.5 Personal Hygiene, ACA Expected Practice 4-ALDP-4B-08 requires that toilet be provided at a minimum of one for every 12 male detainees and one for every 8 female detainees. Detainees in the affected rooms with the emergency beds will have continuous, unrestricted access to additional toilet facilities within the housing unit and temporary beds will be removed from each room when not in use. The exemption is granted per ERO. The funding for the 120 days would occur at the task order level. (120 days X [REDACTED] per bed x [REDACTED] beds = [REDACTED]. The 120 days starts from the signature of this modification. Due to the additions, the total value of the contract increases: From: [REDACTED] By: [REDACTED] To: [REDACTED] For inquiries regarding ICE detainee information or ICE's usage of this agreement, there shall be no public disclosures regarding this agreement made by the Provider (or any subcontractors) without review and approval of such disclosure by ICE.
